Dedication

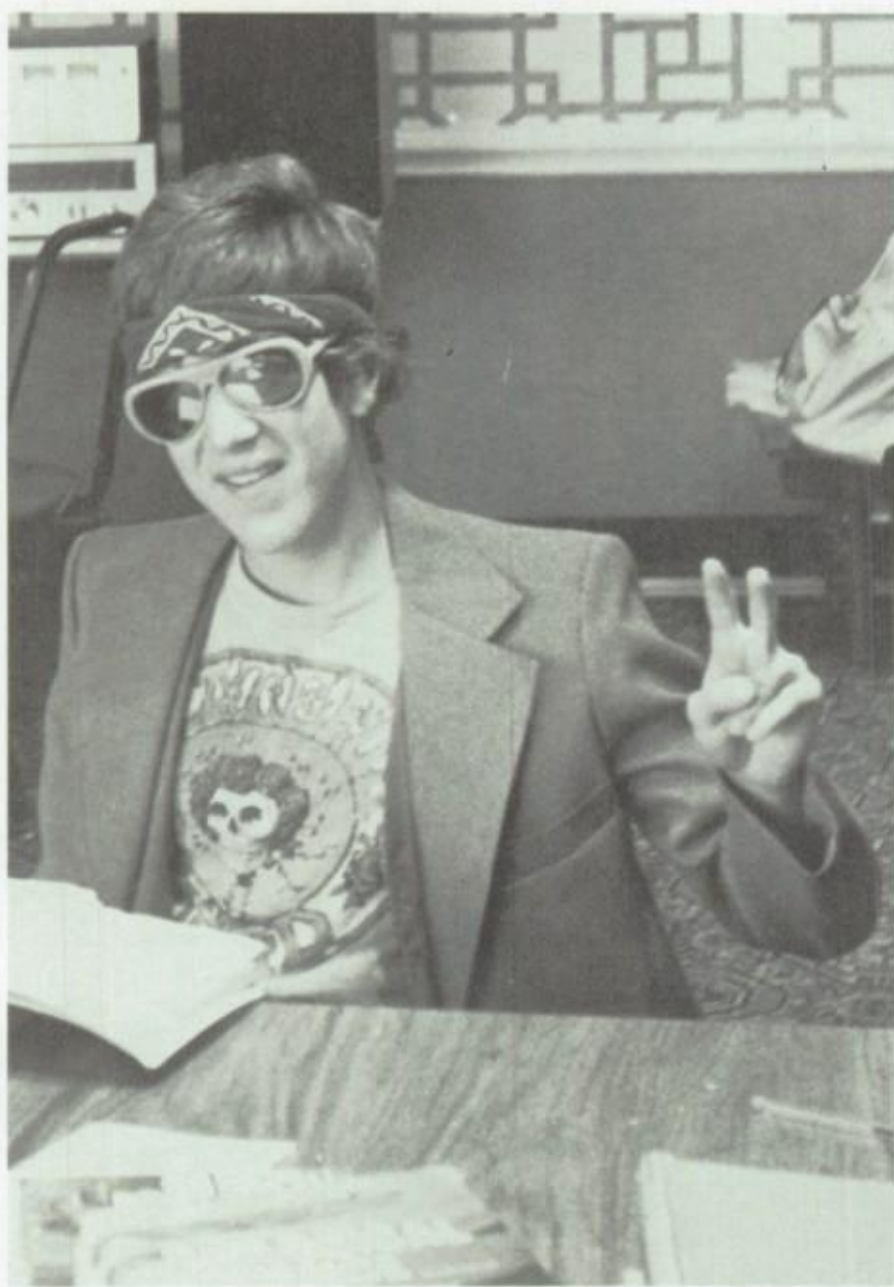

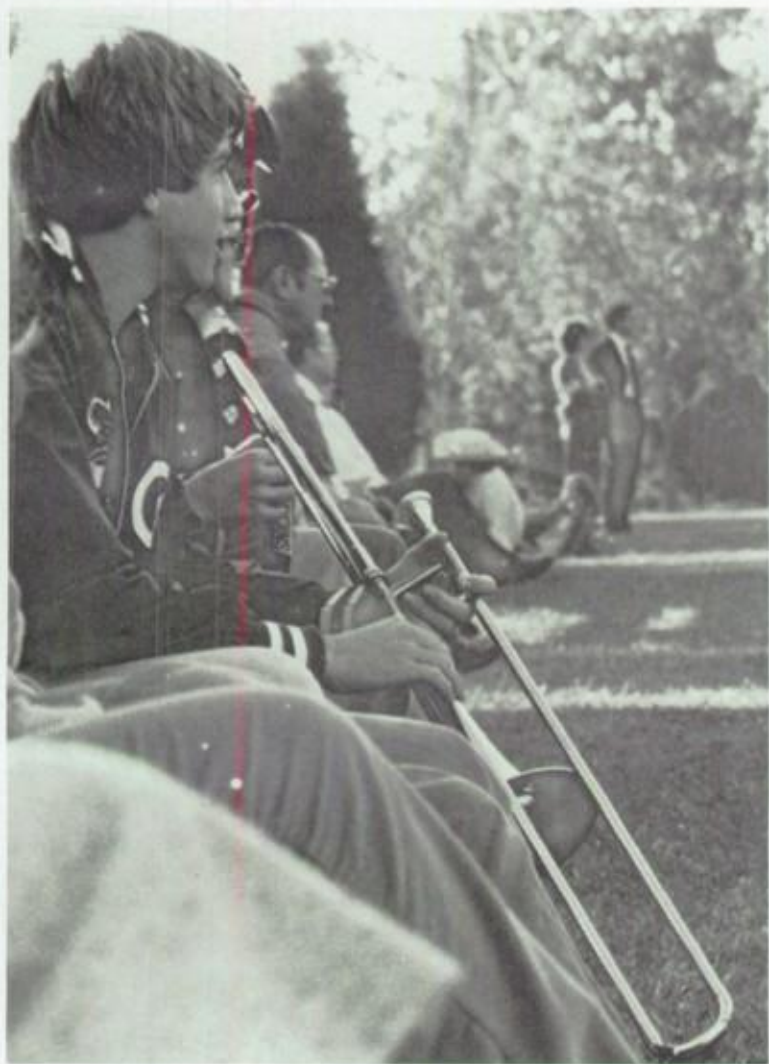

How do you put Mr. Kight into words? Dynamic . . . Exuberant . . . Openminded . . . He taught our class in the eighth grade, and ever since, we have tried to arrange our schedules to have him again. He can make the most boring material exciting by putting an incredible amount of energy into every class; he gives his all. He does not hesitate to share personal experiences with us to make English come alive, and he will listen to our own ideas and experiences. Each class is more of a give and take conversation rather than a dry lecture; because we are appreciative of the effort he puts into his teaching, the senior class of 1980 dedicates this yearbook to him. Thank you, Mr. Kight!

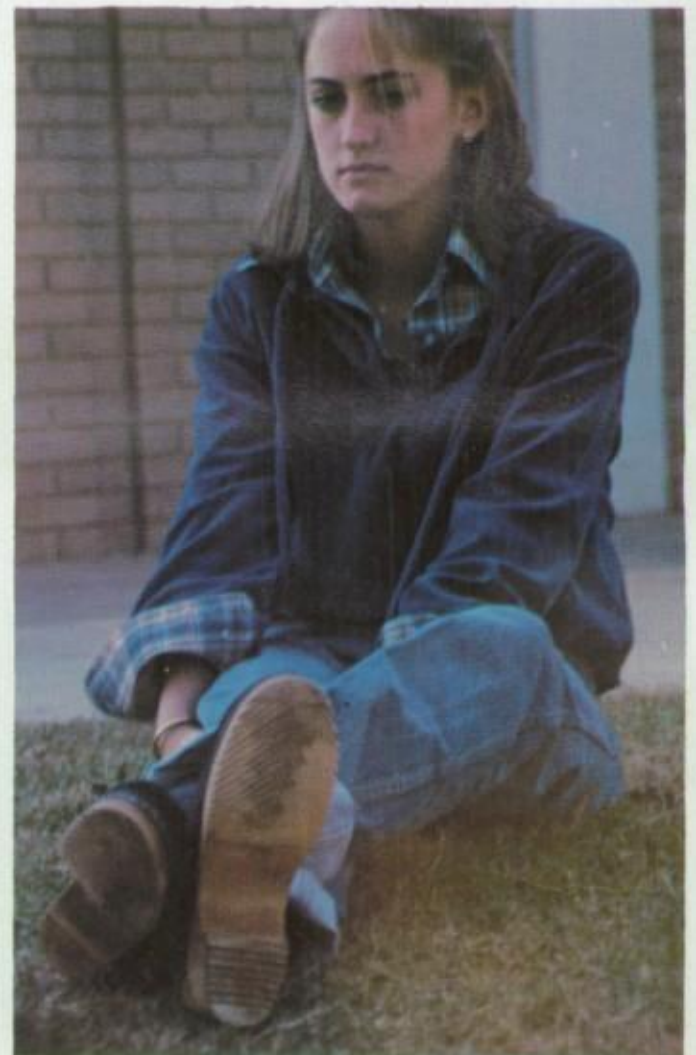

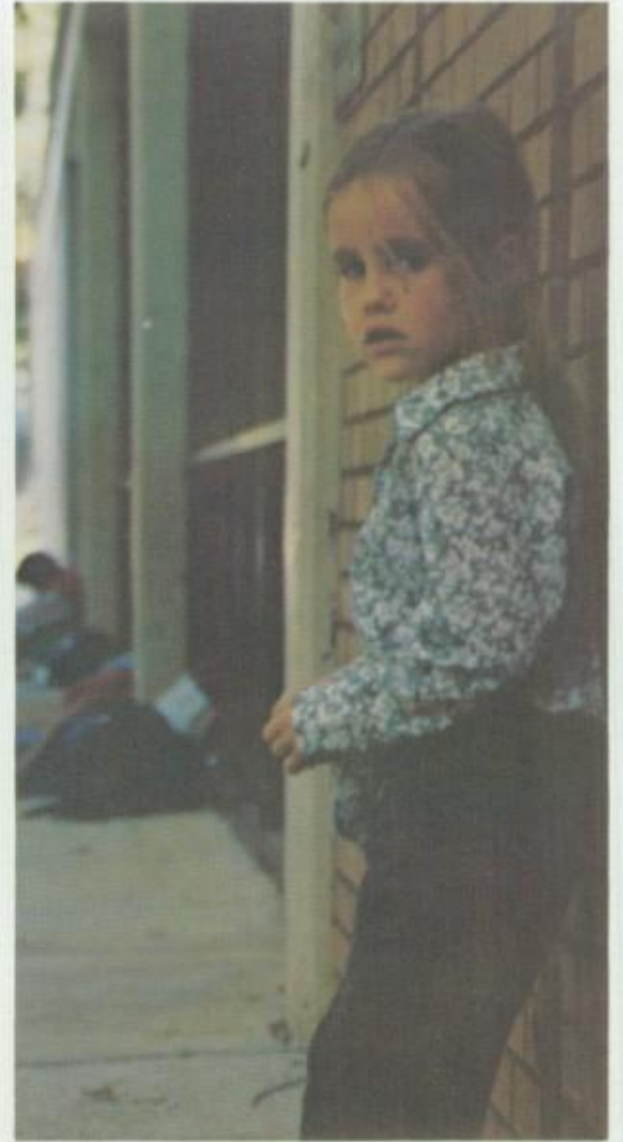

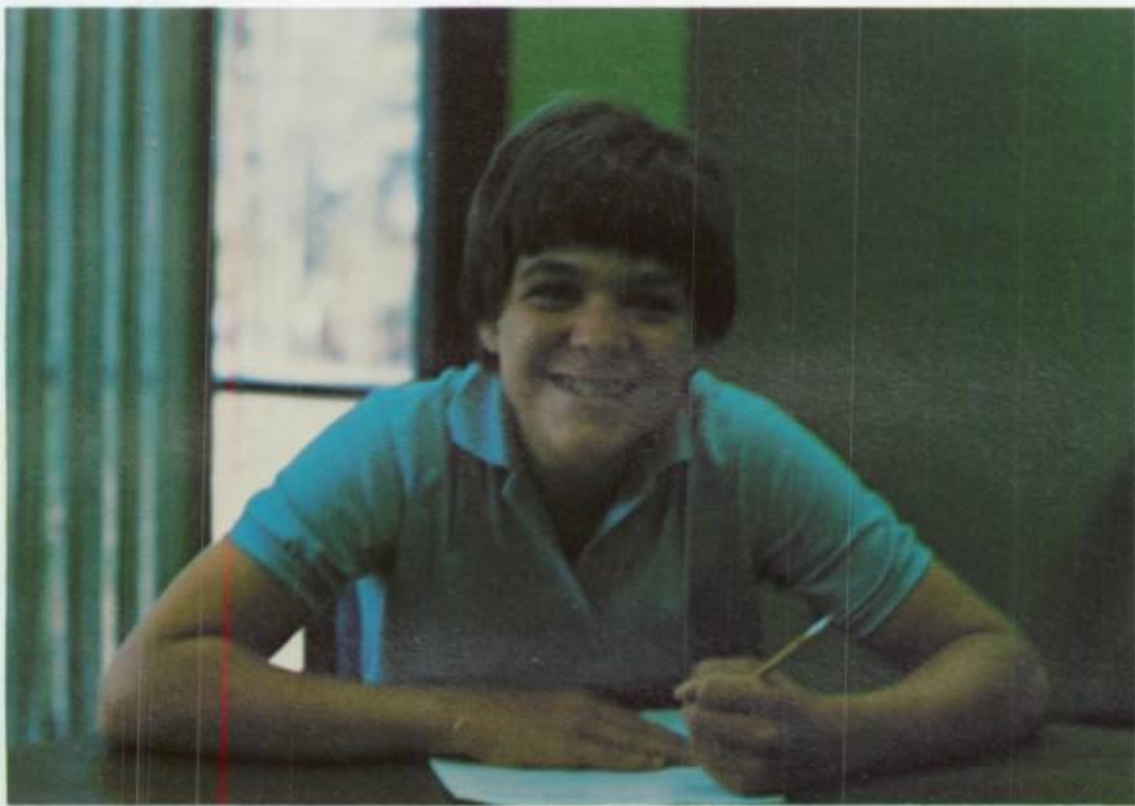

Todd Kight

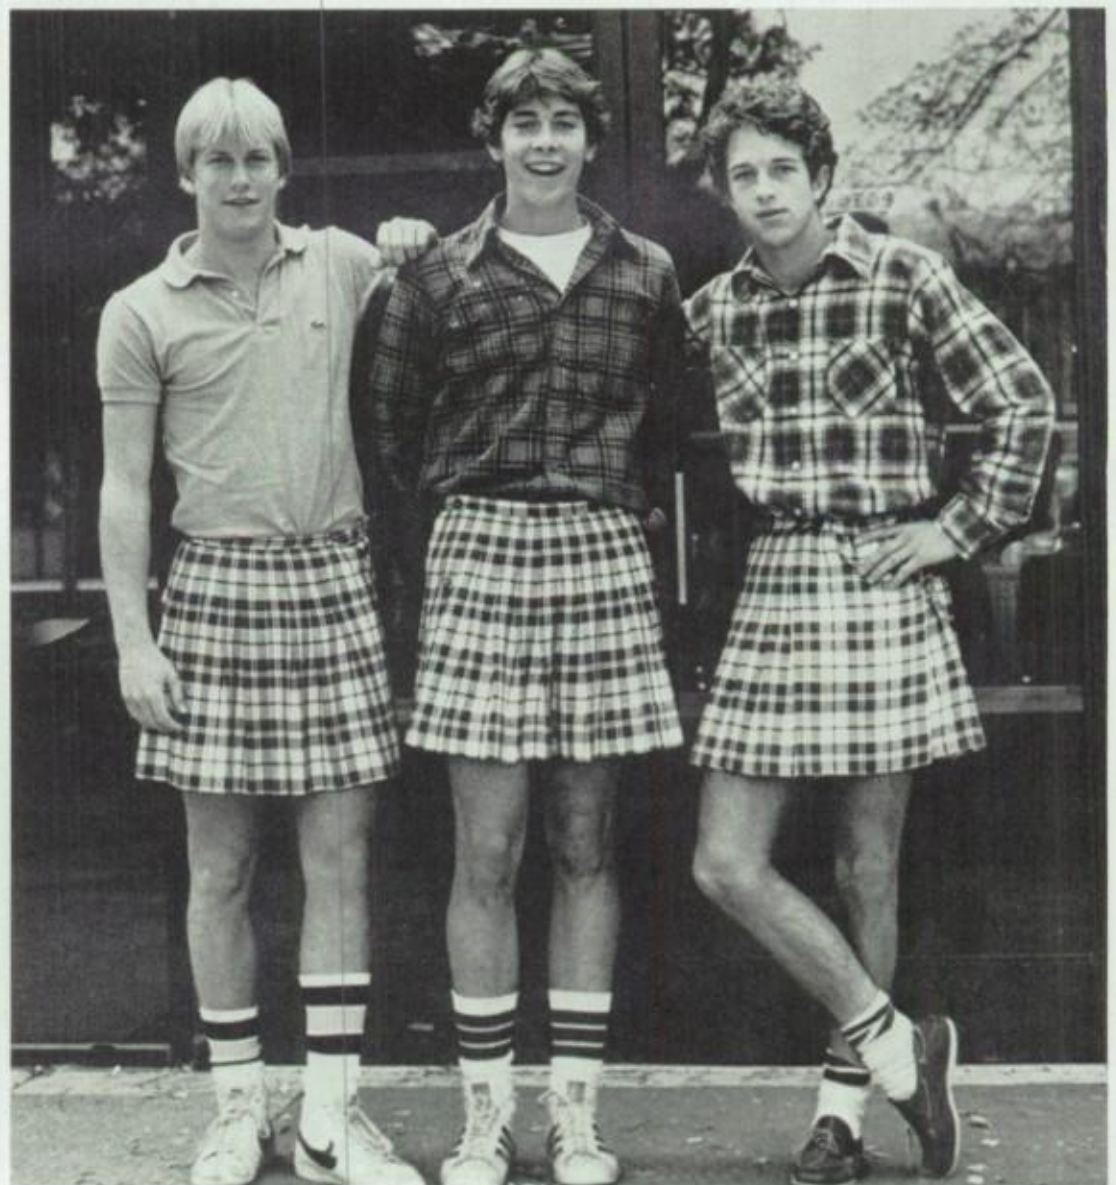

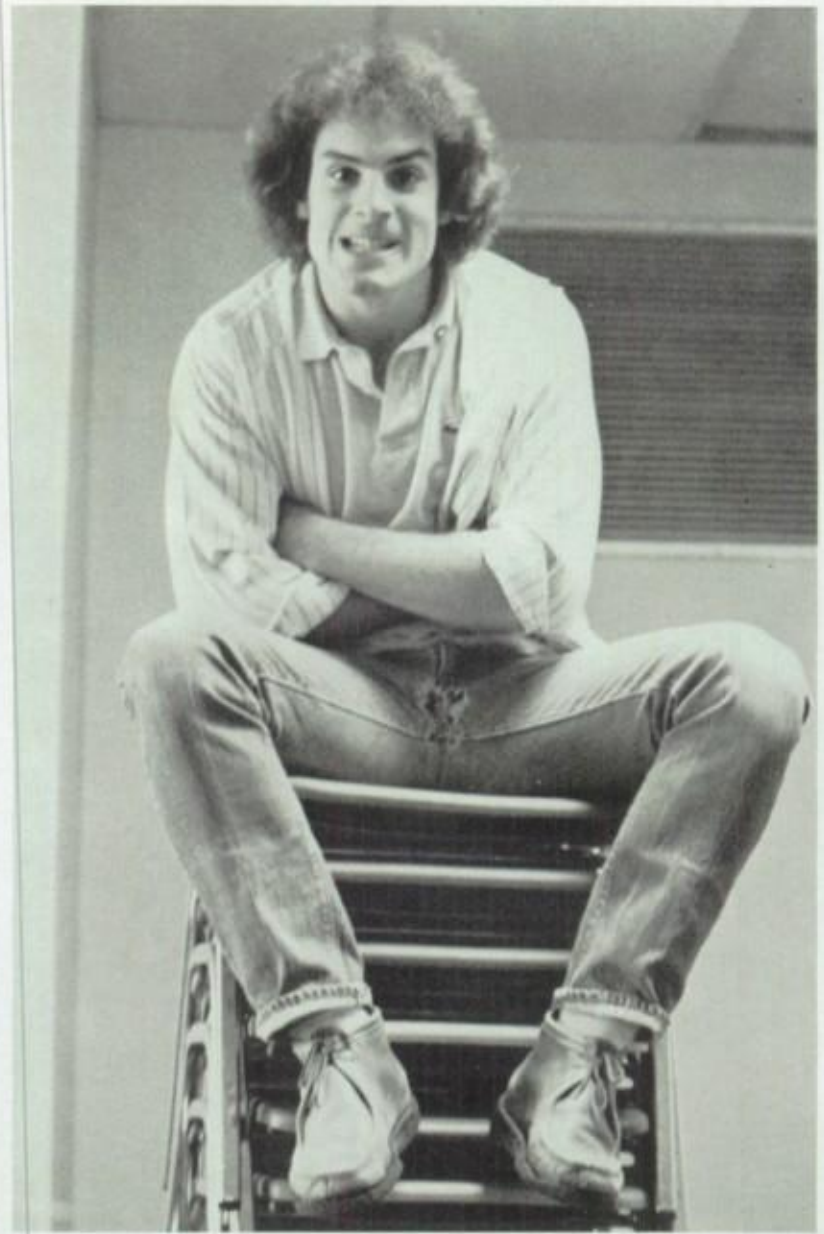

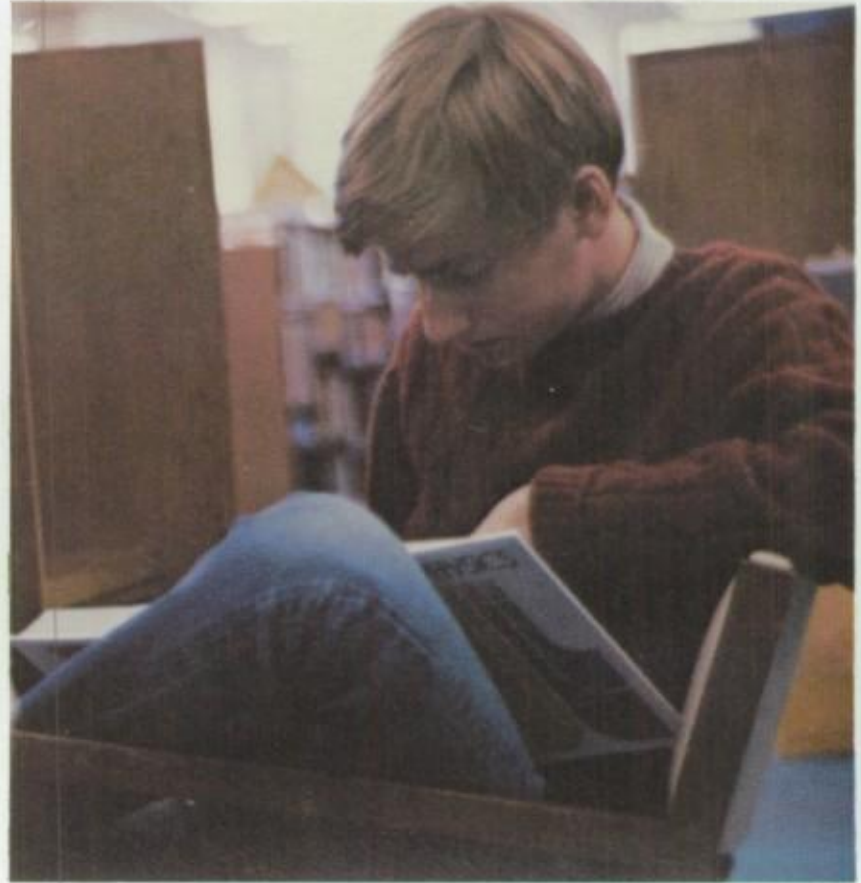

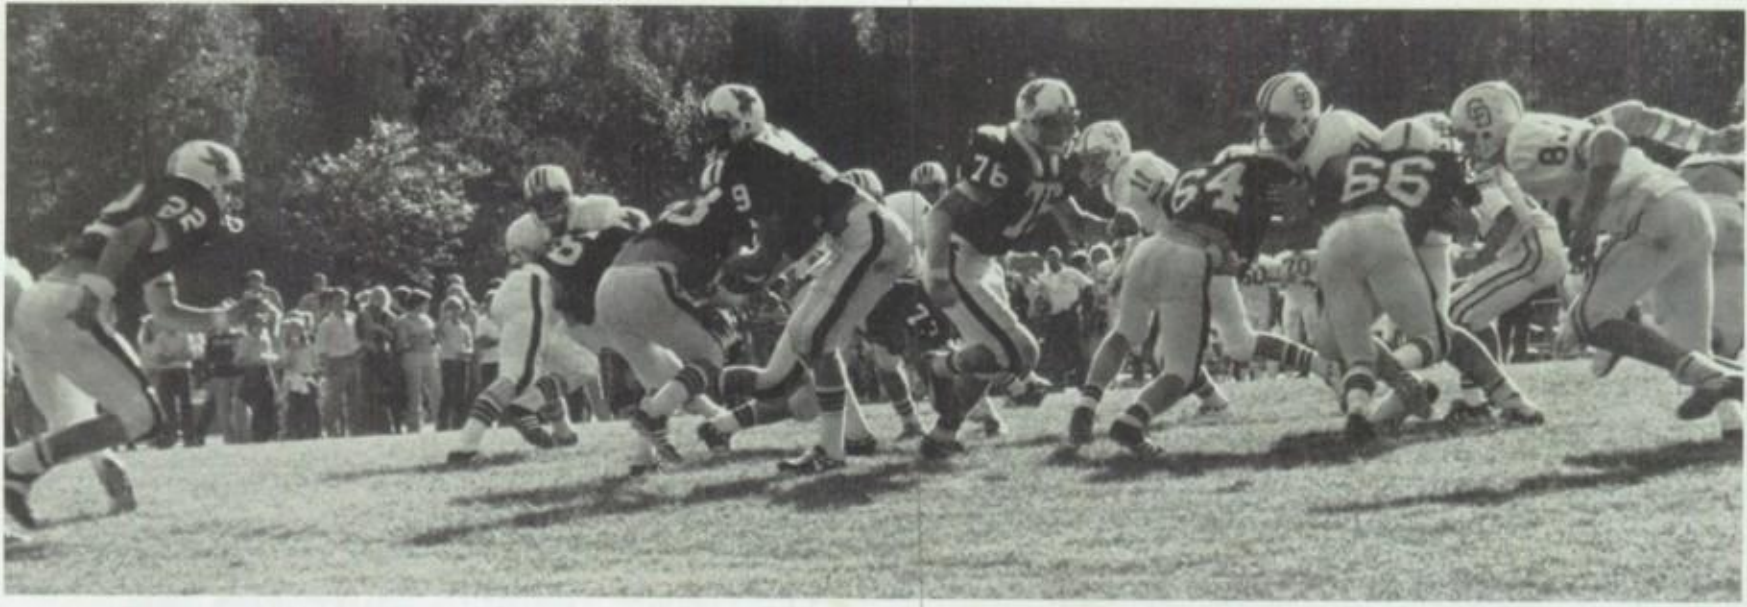

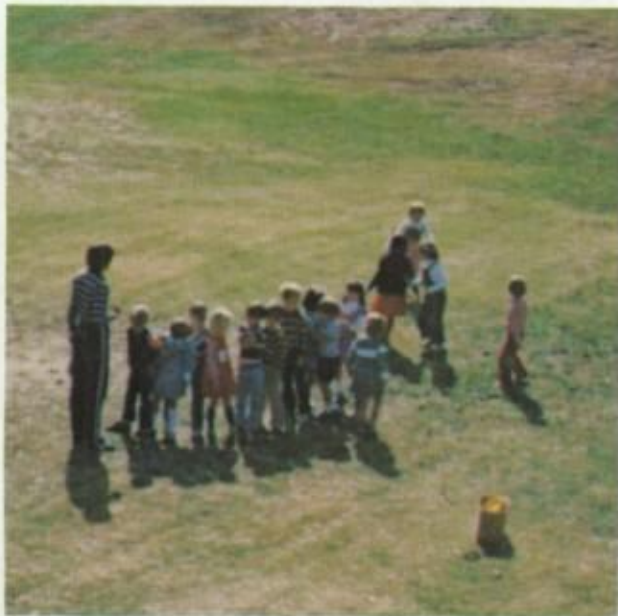

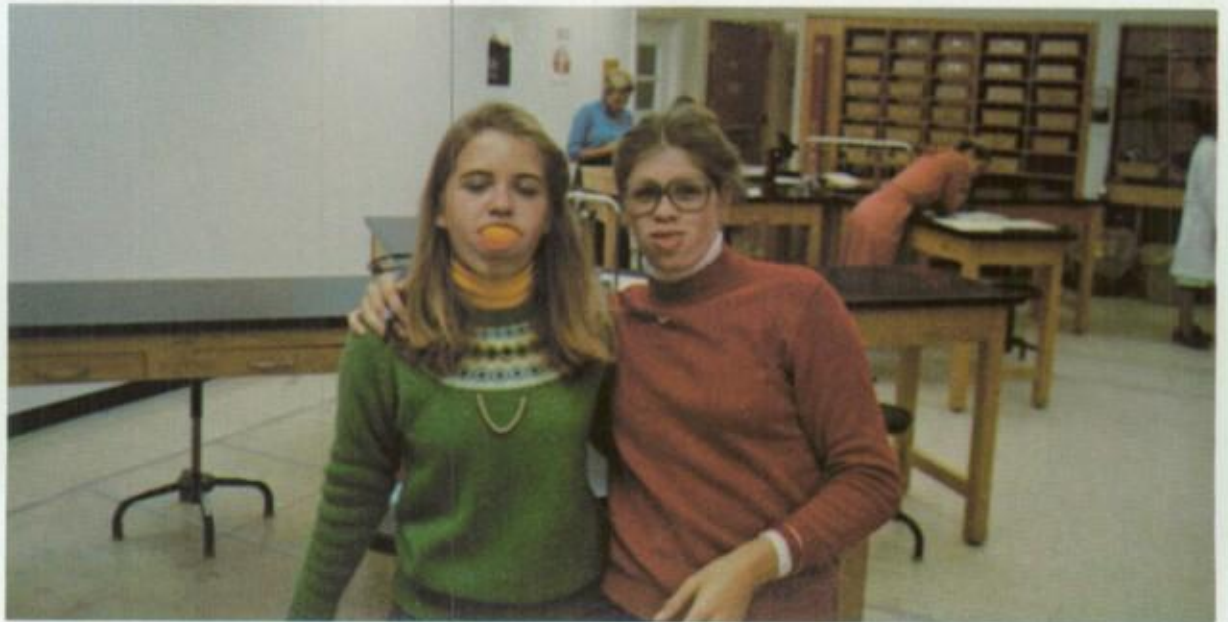

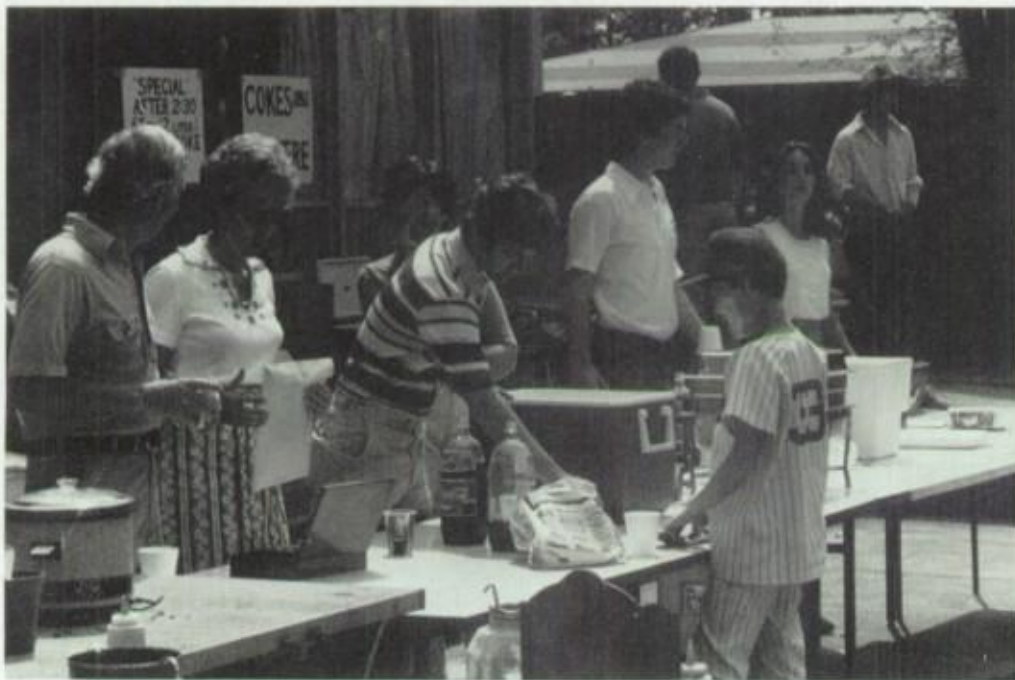

SPRING

Big Saturday

Last year's Big Saturday, on April 28th, was definitely the most profitable one ever, netting over $30,000. which tops 1978's total by about $7,000. The proceeds primarily went toward financing safety and security measures at school—an off-duty policeman and two new fences. Congratulations to all involved for doing a super job!

1979 Jr.-Sr.

WHAT: Jr.-Sr. Prom 1979

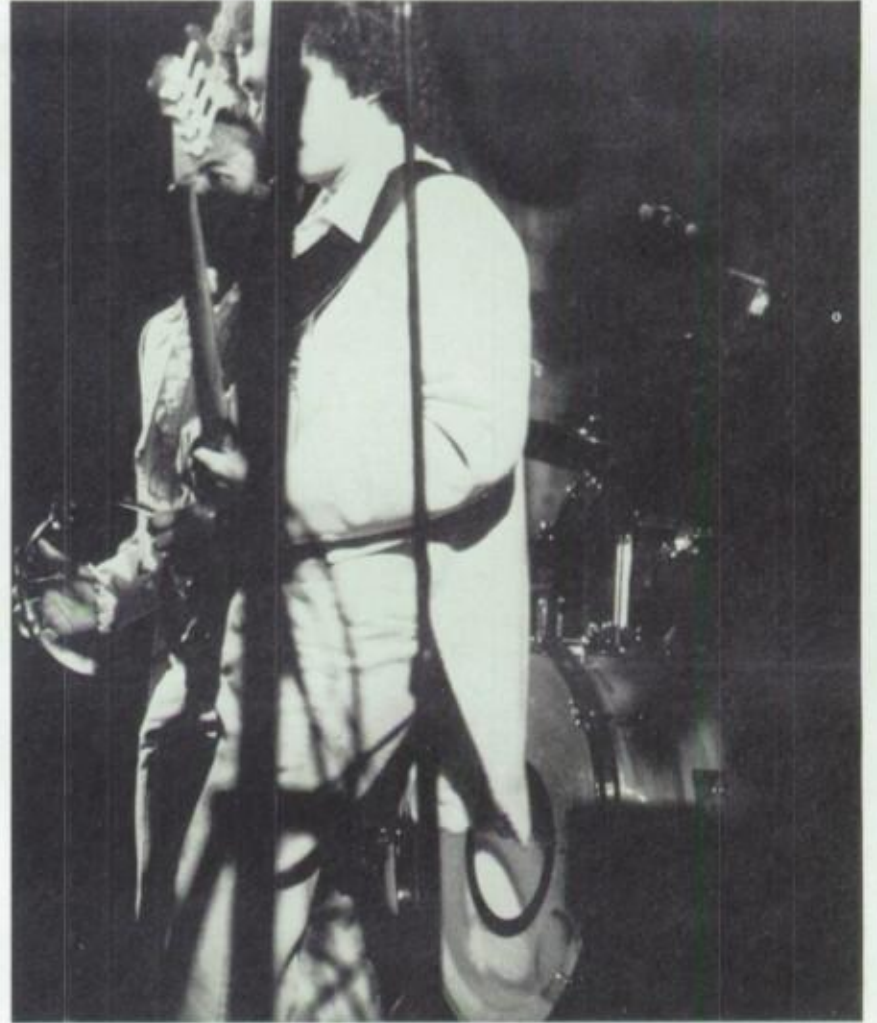

WHEN: May 5, 8:00-12:00

WHERE: Carmel Country Club

BAND: The Spontanes

As in the past, the 1979 Jr.-Sr. Prom was a huge success. It was held at Carmel Country Club on May 5, from 8:00 to 12:00. Due to a raging thunderstorm, lightening struck the transformer and the lights and the band went out! (That explains our lack of pictures!) Undaunted, the prom simply changed locations, and started their after-party a little early.

Everyone had a fabulous time thanks to the Juniors who had worked hard, raising money by selling carnations, poinsettas, and kiss-o-grams, just to name a few.

"The Fantastics"

The Drama Club's Spring Production last year was "The Fantastics". It was very well received by those who attended.

Cross Country

Cross-country 1979 was a year for rebuilding and gaining experience for the youthful team of Coach Burke. The team presented itself well with a winning season and a sixth place finish in the State. Next year, holds much promise with the return of Chan Swallow, Greg Brittain, and the healthy return of potential all-state runner Bill Gotherman. Individual honors went to Senior Captain Jay Martin who made the all-conference team and finished a strong ninth in the state meet.

Varsity Field Hockey

The Varsity Field Hockey team completed its second undefeated season this year with a record of 12-0 under the coaching of Sandie Inglis. The team, led by co-captains Sally Robinson and Katie Dagenhart, brought home their first trophy from the N.C. State Tournament in Durham. Ginny White was chosen the most valuable player of the season and Melinda Hardin was chosen the most improved. At the Deep South Tournament in South Carolina Katie Dagenhart, Robyn Stacy, and Ginny White were chosen to the first All-Star Team.

Third Row: Phil Lane, David Dooley, William Gullion, Jeff Motsinger, Jimmy White, Zac Collins, Jaime Ferro, Wayne Dixon. Fourth Row: Coach John Cook, Grant Helms, Brian Meltsner, Coach Buddy Rigo.

The Varsity Football team this year started the season poorly, losing three out of their four games to strong public school teams. However, they finished the rest of the season undefeated and went undefeated in their league to gain a position in the state playoffs. The Rebels finished the season with an overall record of 6-4.

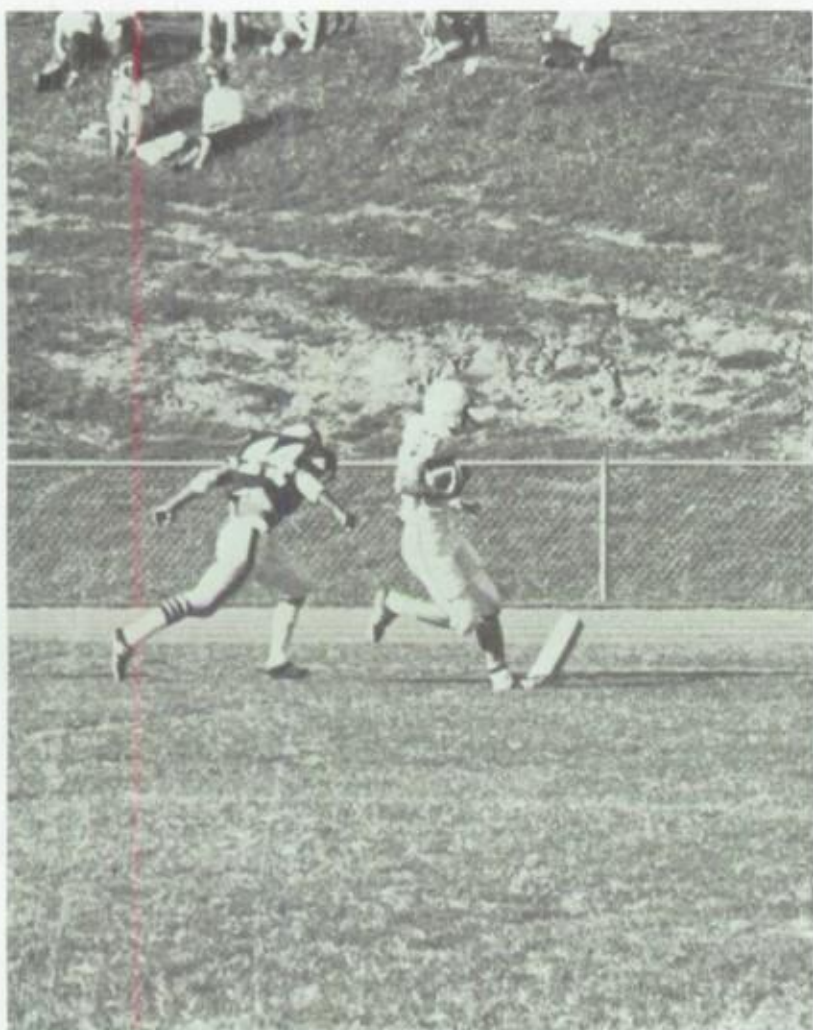

The team was a young one that did not show their full potential until about mid-season when they defeated Latin in a spectacular and exciting game. Outstanding players this year were seniors, John Weekly, Glenn McConnell, Marcus Hayes, Mark Uptegraff, and junior Quarterback Al Dickens.

1979 CCDS VARSITY SOCCER

The 1979 soccer team began the season with high expectations. With nine seniors returning after losing only one player from last year's squad, the possibility of finishing high among the state's schools was an attitude felt by players, coaches, and fans alike. The season began with two tournaments—the CD Invitational and the CISAA Tournament. Before playing Carmel Academy, Country Day won the CISAA and defeated Charlotte Latin twice, posting 7-2-1 record. In the Carmel game, Chip Rogers cracked a bone in his leg and was lost for the season. Despite continued good play from the fullbacks, offensive production was lost and the Rebels struggled in each match afterwards. Country Day tied for the conference championship by defeating Latin 1-0 in overtime. Although losing to Providence Day 1-0 in sudden death overtime in the playoffs, the Rebels finished with a 9-5-1 record.

J.V. Soccer

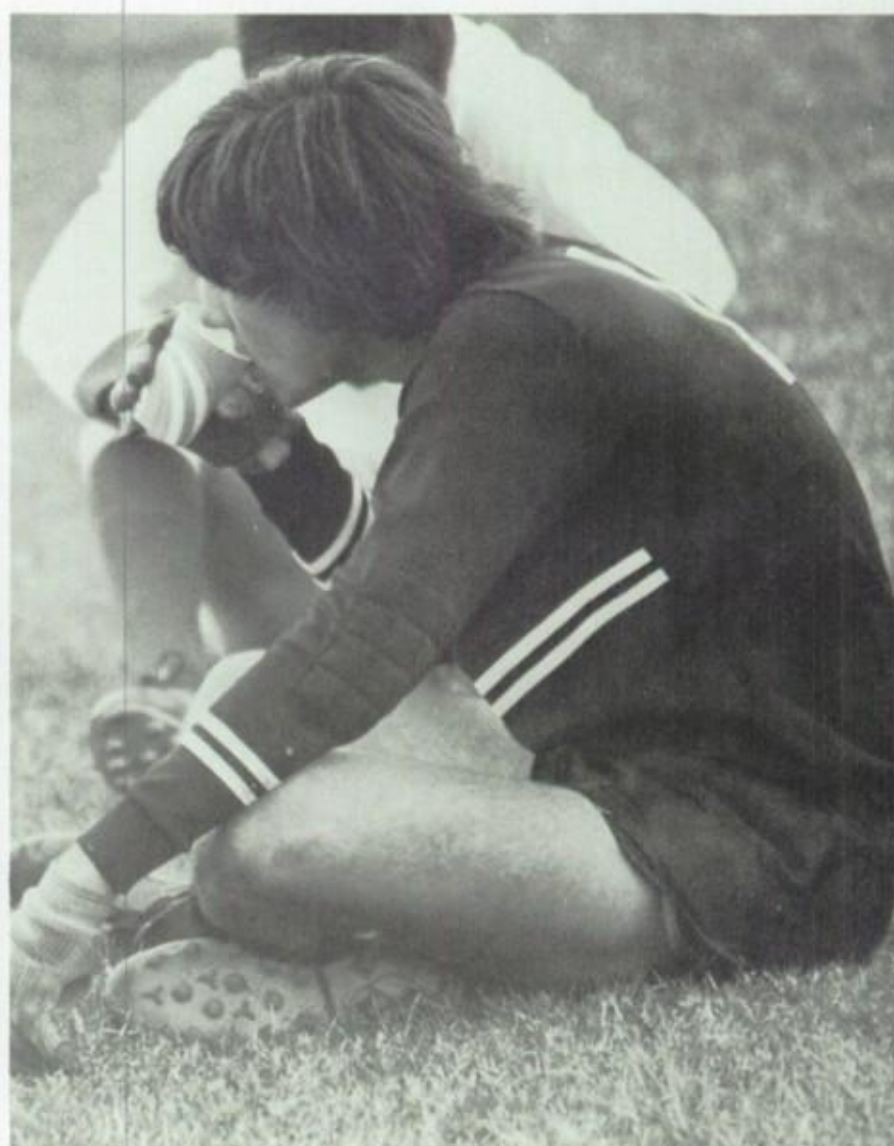

Front Row: Robert Hobson, John Kirkwood, Ross Hobson, Tray Weir, Joe Roddey, Hank Greenberg, Bill Hamel, Brad Dalton, Graves Upchurch, Boykin Curry, Renee Van Landingham. Varsity Volleyball

The Volleyball team ended the 1979 season with an overall record of 13-8 and a regular season record of 8-4. Although not quite as successful as the 1978 team, this year's team was young, and this was a year of gaining experience. In the CISAA Tournament, after first beating Northside and Carmel, the team advanced to the finals where they lost a tough match to Latin. In the Western Regionals, the team moved to the semi-finals where they lost to Forsyth Country Day in an exciting match. Senior Captain Wendi Levine was chosen to the All Conference Team and named All CISAA Tournament along with sophomore Sonia Little. The team had a good year and have high hopes for an even better season in 1980.

The Girls' basketball team, led by co-captains Ginny White and Wendi Levine, finished with an overall record of 13-9. The team finished 3rd in the conference and went on to win the CISAA Conference Tournament after beating Providence Day. Wendi Levine was named Most Valuable Player of the tournament and, along with Mary Beth Brennan and Ginny White, was named All Tournament. The team moved on to the regionals where they won their first game but then lost to Gaston Day in the finals. At the Regional Tournament, Ginny White was named Most Valuable Player and also All Tournament. Mary Beth Brennan was also named All Tournament. In addition to tournament honors, Ginny White scored over 1000 points in her C.D. career. Postscript would like to congratulate the team for their strong effort and tournament victory.

The Country Day Wrestling team finished the season with a 7-6 record. The team won 5 of their last 7 matches. This year's team graduated 2 seniors, Monroe Bridges and Richard Miller of Carmel Academy. In the Country Day Invitational Tournament, the Rebel squad finished second. The individual champions were Marshall Mills at 112 lbs. and Richard Miller at 105. At the annual banquet, Marshall Mills was awarded most valuable wrestler and Pete Georges was chosen most improved.

The 2 seniors — one's from the Academy, the other's shoulder is separated . . . a seventh grade star . . . Look our Miller, it's Purple Maze . . . Tape Player=Match Captain . . . If you play

FINE ARTS 79

N.C. SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

During portions of October and November, Charlotte Country Day was privileged to have the N.C. Shakespeare Festival from Highpoint in residence at the school. This dramatic troupe, reknown for their excellent technique, performed two plays — A Servant of Two Masters and Tennessee Williams' Summer and Smoke — for the general public and for the lower and upper schools respectively. The troupe also gave a few lectures to interested drama students, including seminars on make-up and sword fighting which are pictured below.

Billy Joel

Jacqueline Reneé Bristor

If I leave here tomorrow, will you still remember me?
I must be traveling on now, because there are so many places
I have to see.
If I stay here with you, things just couldn't be the same.
I'm as free as a bird now —
and this bird you cannot change.
Lynard Skynard

Don't ever tell anybody anything
If you do, you start missing everybody.
J. D. Salinger

Show me a place where dreams are for dreamers.
Commodores

Harriet Elizabeth Brown

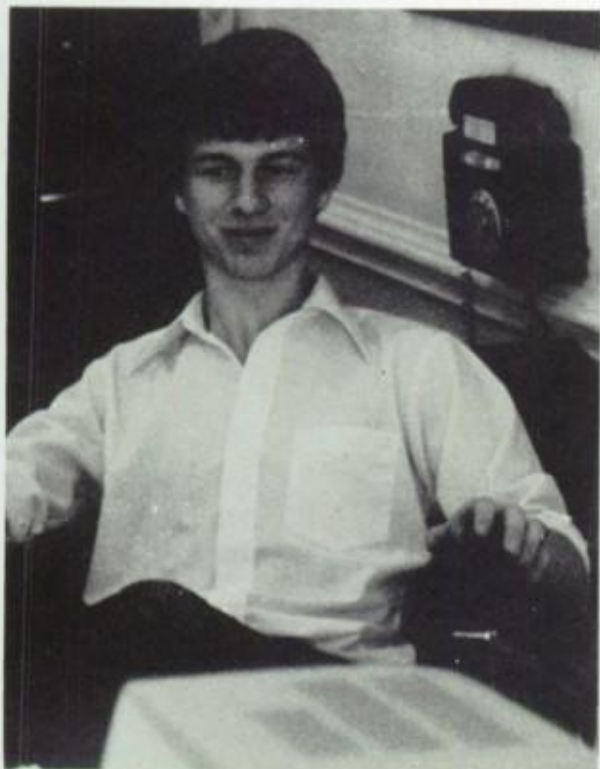

You're only young once.
But if you do it right the first time,
that is enough.

Whether near or far apart,
We are always close to friends
Of the heart.

Time is just a word that measures the changes in the way that we feel as life turns the pages.
Lou Rawls

Be young, be foolish, but be happy.

Be more concerned with your character than your reputation.
Because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are.

John Wooden

When you crossin' that big street don't you watch dem red and green lights — you watch dem cars. Ain't nobody every got run over by a light.

Redd Fox

Life is like a sewer; you get as much out of it as you put into it.

Karen Ann Culbreth

Today, well lived, makes every yesterday a dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Sanskrit

Happiness is enhanced by others, but does not depend on others.

"Karen, don't forget to stop and smell the roses."

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Culbreth

The secret of contentment is knowing how to enjoy what you have.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be,
and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusions of life keep peace with your soul . . . Strive to be happy.

Desiderata

Mark A. Culton

Opportunities do not come to those who wait;
they are captured by those who attack.

William Henry Danforth

The only reward of virtue is virtue;
The only way to have a friend is to be one

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still acheiving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.

Clay Hall Cunningham

I love the people,
But do not like to stage me to their eyes:
Though it do well, I do not relish well
Their loud applause and Aves vehement;
Nor do I think the man of safe discretion
That does affect it.

Shakespeare

I never give them hell. I just tell them the truth, and they think it is hell.

Harry S. Truman

We shape our buildings; thereafter they shape us.
Winston Churchill

Sarah Katheryne Dagenhart

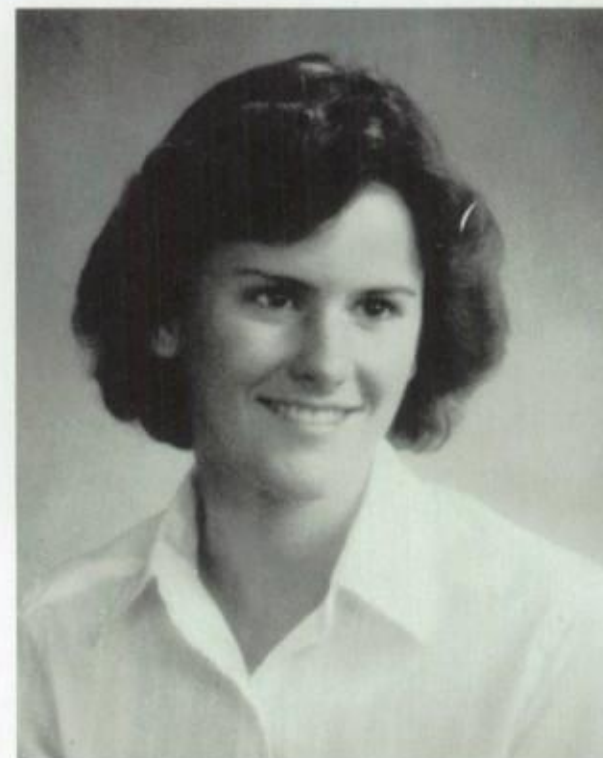

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen nor touched, but are felt in the heart.

Come what may, hold fast to love! Though men should rend your heart let them not embitter or harden it. We win by tenderness.
We conquer by forgiveness.

Happiness is possible only when one is busy. The body must toil, the mind must be occupied, and the heart must be satisfied. Those who do good as opportunity offers are sowing seed all the time, and
They need not doubt the harvest.

Women's styles may change, but their designs remain the same.

Where love is, there God is.

Jill Marie Davis

If you think you are beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you'd like to win but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you've lost.
For in the world you'll find Life begins with a fellow's will —
It's all in the state of mind.

There is no secret so close as that between a rider and his horse.

Robert Smith Surtees

You probably wouldn't worry about what other people think of you if you knew how seldom they do.

Unknown

When all think alike, no one thinks very much.

Unknown

If everybody is doing it, there is probably something wrong with it.

Grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change;
the courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.

Do not walk behind me, I may not lead.
Do not walk in front of me, I may not follow.
Walk beside me and be my friend.

So before we end and then begin,
Let us drink a toast to how it's been
A few more hours to be complete,
A few more nights on satin sheets,
A few more times that I can say,
I have loved these days.

Authority is to be ridiculed, outwitted and avoided. And it's fairly easy to do all three. If you believe in peace, act peacefully; if you believe in love, act lovingly; if you believe every which way, then act every which way, that's perfectly valid — but don't go out trying to sell your beliefs to the System. You end up contradicting what you profess to believe in, and you set a bum example.

And that children are the only ones who blush
And that life is just to die.

Everything has its season, everything has its time.
Show me a reason, I'll show you a rhyme.
Every man has his daydreams, every man has his goals
People like the way dreams have of sticking to the soul.
So many men seem destined to settle for something small,
But I won't rest until I know I'll have it all.
Rivers belong where they can ramble, eagles belong where they can fly,
I've got to be where my spirit can run free,
Got to find my corner of the sky.

Old days, good times I remember.
Fun days, filled with simple pleasures.
Drive-in movies, comic books, and blue jeans. Howdie doodies.
Take me back to a world gone away,
All these memories seem like yesterday.

If you wake up and don't want to smile,
If it takes just a little while,
Open your eyes and look at the day,

There's a time and a place we've yet to see,
There's a sea we've yet to sail.
And though we've seen it many times,
There's a mountain we've yet to scale
There's a world we've yet to find,
And a world we've yet to lose.
There's a road we have to leave behind
And a road we have to choose.

Mary C. Jones 1912-1980

The Pre-School veterans of the class of 1980 dedicate this page to Mary C. Jones, who was our first teacher here at Country Day. Mrs. Jones spread her love of life to all those whom she taught and knew. She inspired us all with the exuberance and joy of her ever-youthful soul. This page is a small token of our love for someone who gave us so much love.

Homecoming

Country Day had its first homecoming this fall. The boys of grades 9-12 each nominated four girls from their class. The queen was elected from the four senior girls by the whole Upper School, and the three remaining seniors were in the court. Grades 9-11 chose a girl from their grade to be on the court. The queen and the court were announced at the dance after the football game against Ravenscroft. Although we played well, we lost.

Halloween Parade

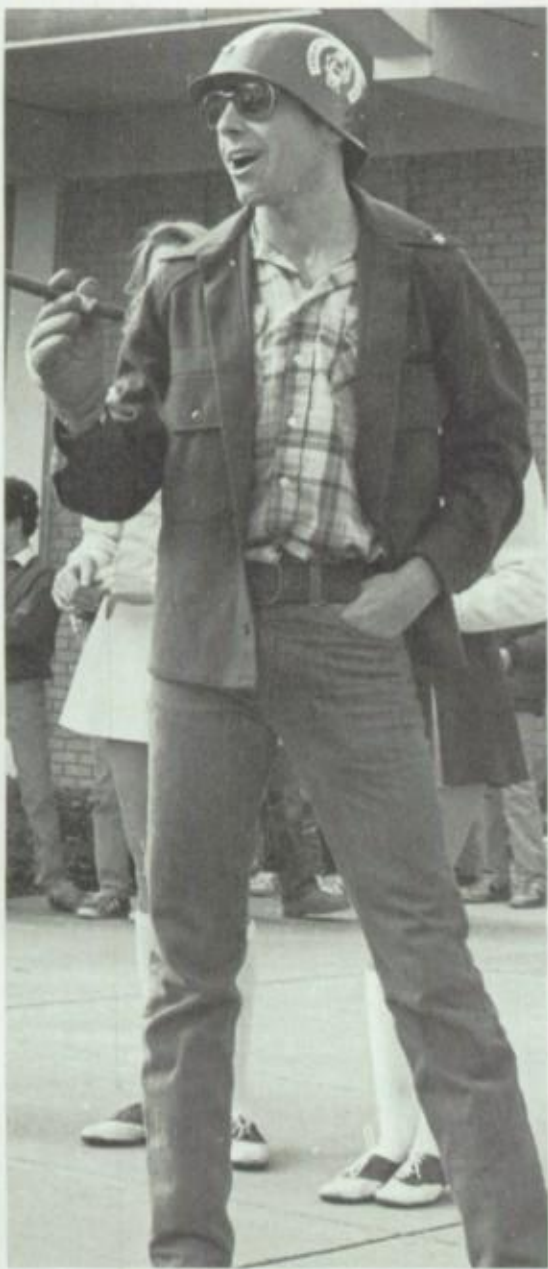

On Halloween Day, the Upper and Middle Schools watch as the Lower School, transformed into all sorts of creatures, makes it's yearly parade through the campus. Aquifer — also in strange dress — leads the parade. Some of the C.C.D.S. faculty also join the parade.

Christmas Breakfast

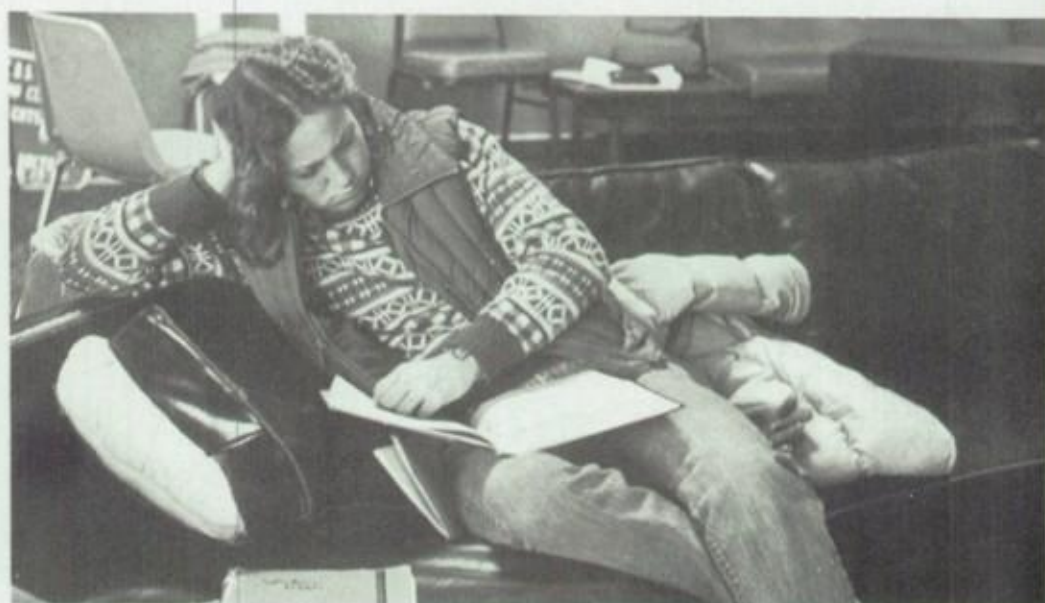

On the last day before Christmas break, Country Day has a Christmas Breakfast for all of its families. Aquilifer helps to serve the breakfast and set tables. A Christmas gift shop sells handmade gifts and home baked goods. The Christmas Breakfast is a fun way to start Christmas vacation.

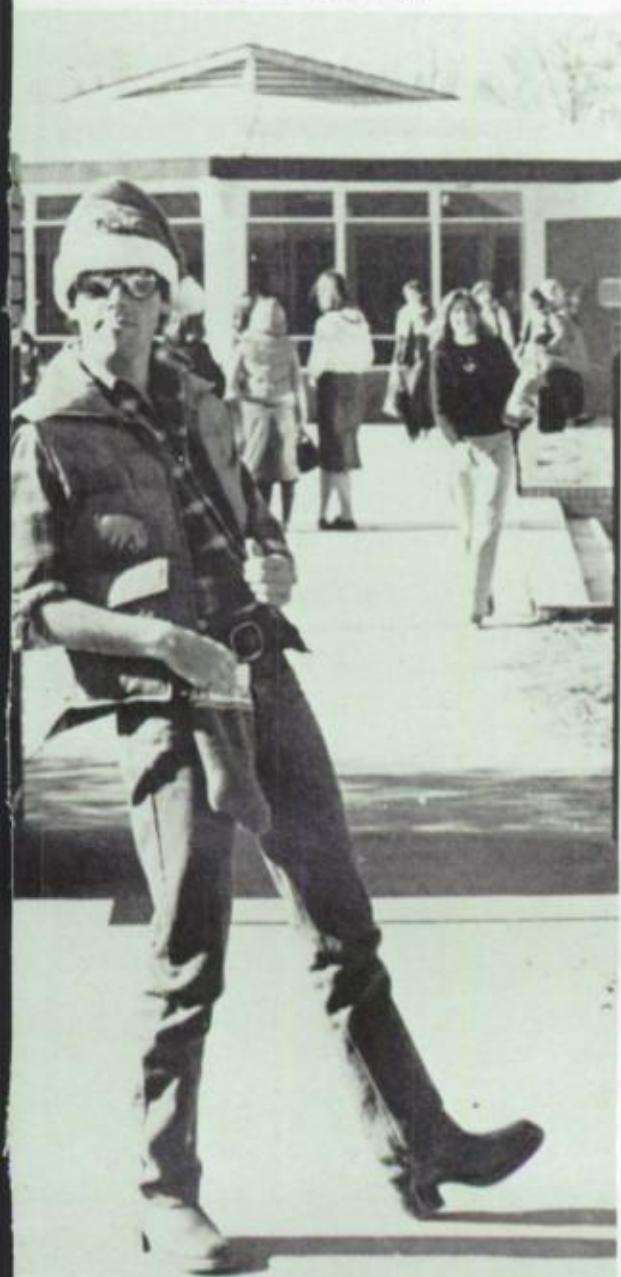

Striving for an education, C.D. students battle the elements to get to school.

CD's Santa.

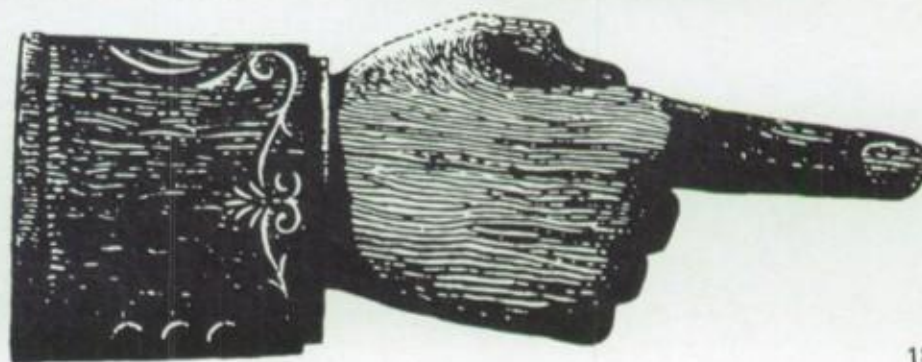

Is Chemistry really THAT great?

Say that again.

"I saw that!"

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE C.C.D.S., CLASS OF '80

For each and every one of you who will be continuing your formal education in some way, we give you this quotation attributed to Mortimer Adler, former professor at the University of Chicago.

"If when I entered a classroom and said, 'Good morning,' my students responded 'Good morning,' I knew they were undergraduates. But if they took out their notebooks and wrote down my greetings, I knew they were graduate students."

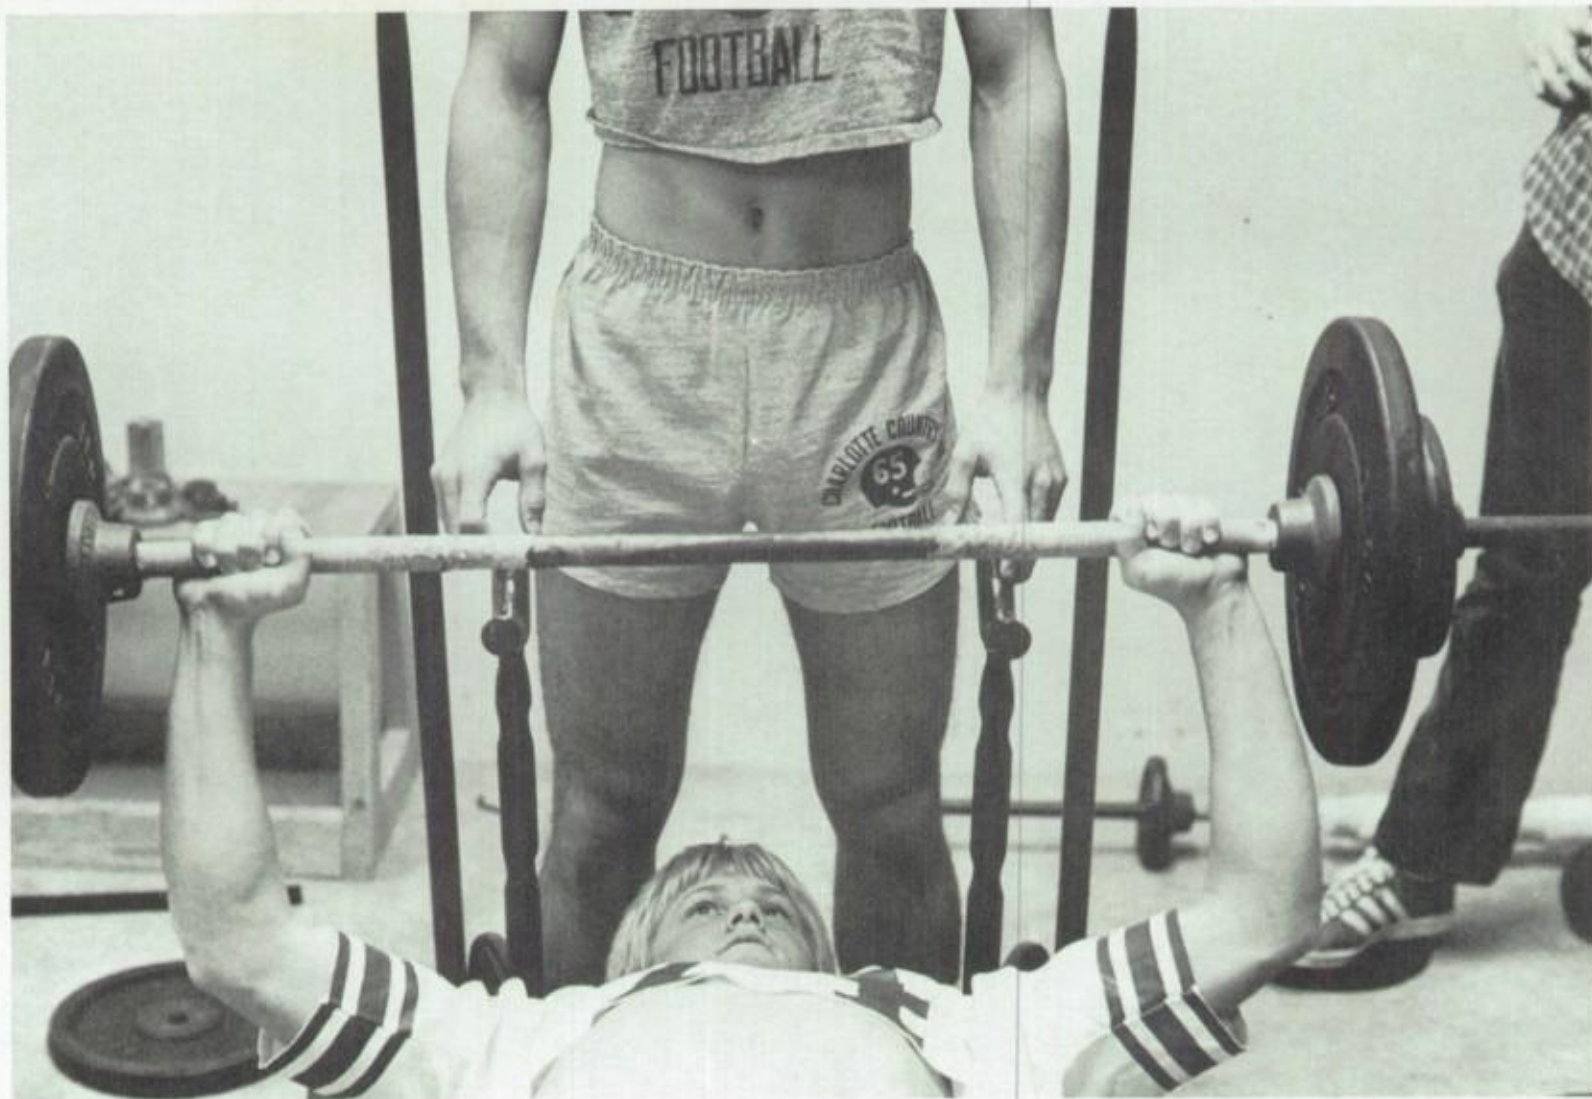

..... and for those who choose a different road.

Feminists
Change: Lad to Lass
Lass to Lad
Queen to Dream (when appropriate)

*When all the world is young, lad
And all the trees are green,
And ev'ry goose a swan, lad,
And ev'ry lass a queen;
Then hey for boot and horse, lad,
And round the world away,
Young blood must have its course, lad,
And ev'ry dog his day.*

We thank Mr. Barnes, Mr. Burts, and Bernie Lassard for the help they have given us. We give special thanks to Mr. Bryan for his help and to those few people who gave us so much of their free time. Arlaine Rockey deserves a medal for working during the Christmas holidays.
